CITY AND COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER

Free coinage of silver would cause Arizona to mine $10,000,000 a year of the white metal. Where now stands only smokeless chimneys would then be the scene of activity.-Gazette.

Many Arizons people are now discontinuing gold standard newspapers. The Los Angeles Times and San Francisco Chronicle has lost many subscribers because of their hostility to silver and others will meet a similar fate. Arizonans are loyal and consist-

Never was a more inviting opportunity presented to a political party as is today at Chicago, and never did a party s'iow a stronger desire to take advantage of the situation. It now seems absolutely certain that the Democratic platform and candidate will be satisfactory to the friends of silver throughout the west and south.

The platform of the St. Louis convention is a direct challenge to the silver forces which are now controling the Democratic party. The gauntlet has been thrown down and it remains for the Democracy to take it up. A straddle is out of the question and nothing short of a miracle can prevent a straight out declaration on the part of the national Pemocratic convention for 16 to 1.
